Engineers Without Borders University of Nebraska Chapter

What is EWB-NU?

“Our mission is to build a better world through engineering projects that empower communities to meet their basic needs while growing the leadership skills of University of Nebraska students through local and global collaborations.”

EWB-NU is the University of Nebraska’s Chapter of Engineers Without Borders USA. Most of our members are engineering students on the Lincoln and Omaha campuses.

We provide engineering services for professionally mentored projects that communities in Madagascar and Zambia have requested as well as giving back to our communities here in Nebraska.

Our Work

Madagascar Solar Power Project

We are lighting classrooms in primary schools in Kianjavato, Madagascar using solar power. To complete this project, we need to raise $100,000 to cover materials & supplies, travel expenses for our professional mentors, and modestly subsidize student travel.

Zambia Bridge Project

In Zambia, the Kalomo River prevents safe travel for much of the year for people to access markets, schools, and medical care. The community requested a bridge to safely connect them to these important services.

To complete this project, we need to raise $250,000 to cover the cost of the bridge, mentor travel expenses, and modestly subsidize student travel.

Fundraising Goals for Madagascar & Zambia Projects

Our fundraising goal for 2025 is $100,000. This will light two classrooms in Madagascar and allow us to start purchasing materials and hire a construction manager for the bridge in Zambia. We have three ways you can join with us to complete these projects: our Evening Without Borders Dinner, Pizza Thursday Partnerships, and general donations.

Evening Without Borders: A Night in Africa

March 13, 2025 5-7pm

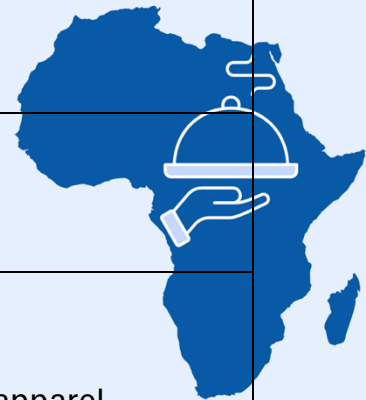

Themed Dinner Event

In the spring, our chapter will host a fundraising banquet at UNL. This night is an exciting and informative time for family, students, and professionals to learn more about what it's like to live in the partner communities that our projects are benefiting.

Companies and students are invited to attend for an opportunity to network over cuisine and entertainment inspired by our Malagasy and Zambian partner communities, and a chance to hear directly from our members about their experiences both locally and abroad.

Connecting Students and Employers

On Thursdays, we host Pizza Thursday in Kiewit Hall, our engineering building on the UNL campus. Students from all engineering majors come to Pizza Thursday to network with the company who sponsored us and enjoy free pizza.

Companies also have the option to hand out flyers or company branded merchandise if they choose. These events attract over 100 students, providing excellent engagement between students and company recruiters, with widespread advertising across the College of Engineering.
